

A KEY FIGURE IN QUEBEC'S NEWS MEDIA.

François Cardinal

Deputy Publisher and Vice-President
Information, La Presse

Biography:

François Cardinal is Associate Publisher and Vice-President, News at La Presse, where he leads the largest French-language newsroom in Canada.

A journalist for more than 25 years, he has worked at major Quebec daily newspapers, serving as a reporter, parliamentary correspondent, columnist and editor-in-chief. He is also the author of several essays, including Le mythe du Québec vert, Perdus sans la nature and Et si la beauté rendait heureux.

François Cardinal is the recipient of the Judith-Jasmin Award and the Claude-Ryan Award, as well as several other distinctions, including the President's Award from the Royal Architectural Institute of Canada and the Blanche-Lemco-Van Ginkel Award from the Ordre des urbanistes du Québec, recognizing his significant contribution to the development of urban planning in Quebec.