

COVID-19 – Newsletter, March 26, 2020

Dear colleagues,

Yesterday I said that there would be no newsletter today... but here it is, please forgive me.

- 1) ECONOMIC MEASURES: We have update our summary with the new economic measures announcement and it is available HERE. Some of you are wondering whether or not they qualify for any of these measures. We are doing our best to answer each of you individually but our inbox is presently full. We therefor ask you to please first consult with your accountant or your colleagues working in labour law. After all, attorneys, based upon their training, are best equipped among Quebecers to answer legal questions.
- 2) LEGAL AID: Interim billing is now allowed. You can find all the details HERE.
- 3) FAMILY MATTERS: Yesterday we announced that more details would become available in regards to custodial agreements, you can find them HERE.
- 4) INTERNSHIP: We received a lot of perfectly legitimate questions on this matter. You can find some answers HERE.
- 5) LEGAL CLINIC: It is up and running. We thank all of our partners and volunteers. Your work is greatly appreciated.

For all information regarding practice court, please follow the continuously updated information on our website.
