

HOW DOES QUEBEC BENEFIT FROM PROTECTING THE RULE OF LAW?

Valérie Beaudoin

Political Analyst Specializing in U.S.
Politics

Biography:

Valérie Beaudoin is an expert analyst on United States politics, a communicator and a speaker. An associate researcher at the Raoul-Dandurand Chair's Observatory on the United States, she is also a member of the Groupe de recherche en communication politique (GRCP) at Université Laval. She holds a master's degree in applied political studies from the Université de Sherbrooke and is known for her ability to popularize political and economic issues between Canada and the United States to various audiences. Very present in the Quebec media, she is a panelist on the program Les mordus de politique (RDI) and a columnist for the Cogeco network.