

FOR RIGHTS THAT ARE MORE HUMAN.

Me Jeanne Gagné

Crown prosecutor with the Directeur des poursuites criminelles et pénales (DPCP) and serves as President of the Young Bar of Montreal (YBM)

Biography:

Me Jeanne Gagné is a Crown prosecutor with the Directeur des poursuites criminelles et pénales (DPCP) and serves as President of the Young Bar of Montreal (YBM) for the 2026–2027 term. Her professional career began in criminal defence at Legal Aid, before transitioning to the Crown, where she has practised for several years.

Actively engaged in the legal community, her presidency is guided by the theme “People First,” with a particular focus on promoting psychological well-being within the legal profession, improving access to justice, and fostering a more human-centred approach to the practice of law. She is also involved in various professional and community initiatives, including with the Marie-Vincent Foundation.